To

The District Judge,
Bellary.

Honoured Sir,

I, Yemu Bai, wife of N. Narasoji Rao late Process server of the District Court Bellary beg to bring the following few lines for your honour's kind consideration and favourable orders.

My husband was entertained in your Honour's Department as a process server on 10-12-1918 and was drawing a salary of Rs.14/- per mensem. He had put in a total service of 16 years and 9 days up to 19-12-1934. He died on 19-12-1934 on account of stomach ache while he was on duty. He has left behind him myself and one male child aged 8 years and two daughters aged 6 and 2 years respectively. He has no immoveable property. He has not made any provision for the family as he was drawing a low salary of Rs.14/- per mensem. There is nobody to protect me and my your children. My husband has brothers and they are living separately and they are not in a position to maintain me and my children as they are separated from my husband and their living is only hand to mouth. I am aged about 30 years. I am not accustomed to do any cooly work as I am a Maharata Ghosha woman. My husband also left debts to the extent of Rs.80/-.

In these circumstances I beg to request your honour to be kind enough to recommend my case to Government for the grant of compassionate gratuity. The amount may be ordered to be paid to me at the Bellary Treasury.

I beg to remain,
Honoured Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
(Yemu Bai)
Widow of late N.Narasoji Rao,
Process server, Dt. Court.
